

The "SNU"

Meet the New Teachers

Volume 8 Issue 4

Friday 19 October 2012

We would like to welcome the new staff of 2012 to Wolgarston and introduce them to you.

Name: Mr McCosh

Position at Wolgarston: Deputy Head

What do you think of Wolgarston so far?

I am really enjoying the move to Wolgarston. I am excited by the potential of the students here, the quality of the staff I work with and the excellent facilities. I think Wolgarston's focus on academic subjects and proactive move to the English Baccalaureate have placed it in a good position for the future.

Anything else you would like to add?

We have excellent numbers taking up Science – if you know anyone who is an educator or worker in a science field who might come and speak to them please get in touch.

Name: Monsieur Audouin

Position at Wolgarston: Chef du Département de Langues Etrangères
(Head of Foreign Languages)

What do you think of Wolgarston so far?

J'ai été bien accueilli à Wolgarston par les professeurs, les étudiants et tout le personnel en general. L'école est agréable et les étudiants sont polis. J'aime beaucoup qu'ils ouvrent la porte pour le professeur.

(I've been welcomed by Wolgarston teachers, students and the staff in general. The school is nice and the students are polite. I love that they open the door for the teacher.)

Anything else you would like to add?

J'ai beaucoup apprécié que mes collègues s'habillent pour la Journée des Langues Européennes.
(I enjoyed my colleagues dress for the Day of European Languages.)

Name: Señora Carrillo

Position at Wolgarston: Teacher of Modern Foreign Languages

What do you think of Wolgarston so far?

A beautiful school with wonderful young people, full of potential to become an outstanding school, utilising the skills of all those involved.

Anything else you would like to add?

I want to say I am very impressed with the very good manners of many pupils in this school and ask them not to ever change that, as it is an asset in their lives.
